The recognition bears the name of the founder of Rotary International, Paul Harris. Rotary International's End Polio Now initiative is among many programs that are supported locally, regionally, and internationally.

The Rotary Club of Wausau was chartered in 1915 and is the oldest club in its district that includes northeastern Wisconsin and the upper peninsula of Michigan. Its 85 members represent business and professional leaders with high ideals, integrity, and ethical standards who live by the Rotary International credo of "service above self." The group meets most Mondays at noon at the Jefferson Street Inn in downtown Wausau.
